Disappointment of the Man Who Slept With Gen Sherman

From the Detroit Free Press. Between 11 and 12 o'clock yesterday forencon a middle aged man stood on the steps of a Congress street boarding house with an old grip-sack in his hand and a cobble stone and a lot of old pa pers in the grip sack The papers and the cobble stone are mere suppositions, but they were doubtless in there all the When the stranger's ring was answered he indulged in bows, scrapes, and smiles, and announced his readiness to take room and board in the house until he could transact some very im

JUST THINK OF IT!

Our Factory and Storehouse is in Chicago! One of the partners resides in Chicago!

All our Clothing is manufactured by us under his personal supervision!

If any bargain is in the market, he is there to secure it! The ready cash is always at his disposal!

We buy our material direct from the producer!

We do not buy for one, but for many stores in large quantities, and thus are certain of the Lowest Price!

We sell direct to the consumer for Cash, and do not contract bad debts which have to be made up large profits! We return the money if Goods do not give satisfaction!

WHY, OF COURSE, THESE ARE REASONS ENOUGH WHY IT IS THAT WE SELL LOWER THAN ANY OTHER HOUSE.

1. We have demon-trated the fact of our success by a constant increase of our stock, and by the constant envy of our would-be competitors.

2. We have demonstrated the fact of our permanence by increasing the includes for elling in proportion as the number of our costumers increased, and that we need now so much room and moved to larger quarters, is as much as a b am in the eye of our competitor.

3 We stay where we have made our success, in the building corner of Water and Mam streets, in the block, the name of which has become a by-word in every household in the country-"CHEAP CHARLEY'S 1 Although through with No. 1, 2 and 3, we add a 4, and are ready to go on till 13, 14, 15 Now under No 4 we will explain some of the rules which guide us in business and which added to our success. A-Before all we attend to our own affairs, even so far as to write out our own advertisements-never allow anybody else to do it for us, beheving ourselves able to manufacture them, as we manufacture our own clothing B-We never allow stock to grow old on our hands, and to enable us to keep it firsh assorted at all time, we must do a certain amount of business. Now if we open a new branch in a town which proves not to be able to secure as that much trade, we move our stock to another place where we do find it Sometimes we make a mistake in selecting the right town, but that cannot be helped. Among so many good towns in the west must be if a come poor ones, like among so many precious good stones, it happens once in the while to find one that is not worth taking notice of

We defy anybody to falsity the above ficts.

THE glow will sing at the meeting to-morrow night.

Tax Democratic party in Indiana is "all tore up," so to speak, and its prospects are growing more and more gloomy.

STAPHEN A. DOUGLAS addressed a Republican meeting at Jacksonville on Saturday night, and was received with the greatest enthusiasm.

As the campaign progresses it becomes more and more apparent that it be beaten about as badly as Greeley

THE ladies are cordially invited to attend the meeting at the Tabernacle to-mecrow night. Good music, good

Ir has been deemed best to change the place of holding the meeting tomorrow night, and it will accordingly be held at the finternacle instead of the up the country with rebel marshals the court house. Post your notices at Opera House. Come and bring your from Louisiana and Missistippi, and once and let us all meet together. family with you.

STEPHEN A. DOUGLAS, who is to adcle to mostly evening, has lived in the South to the years, and can give some attacking accounts of the way political campaigns are conducted in that paradise of Democracy.

GEN. HARCOCK is a fit representative, it seems of Democratic ideas. When the rebel Gen. Beauregard visited him in New Orleans, Hancock took down the less form his headquarters lest it might wound the sensitive feelings of his Democratic guest. No wonder the South wants Hancock.

Every Democratic newspaper in the country paid the foolish story that They have never been discreet, and Gen. Grifft Bad declared his intention to vote for Mancock, but we cannot call one to mind which has had the manlinem to give publicity to the flat denial which come so promptly from the fips of Gen-Great himself.

HANCOCK AT HOME.

Under date of June 30th, Eli Perhins writes from New York to the Chiego Tribune, concerning the way in which the Democratic candidate lives son harmonice. Gen. Hencock knows at the luxurious quarters provided for that there are three republicans in him at the public expense. This is Mississippi to two Democrats. And Eli's description.

Yesterday I went over to Governor's Island to see the military candidate for the presidency, Gen. Hancock.

The General occupies sixty-four acres of land, worth, if it were sold for city residences, about $15,000,000. Governor's Island has ceased to be of any value as a defense for the city or harbor. It is simply used as the residence of some pet commanding general. A gun fired from Governor's Island at a passing ship would go crashing into the heart of Brooklyn. If a public enemy should ever get within reach of Governor's Island, with the new improvement in long range guns, he could send a shell through the Astor House, Trinity Church, the Stock Exchange, or Sub-Treasury. Here on this fifteen million dollar farm, surrounded by several hundred servants, the taxpayers of America support General Hancock. Here seventy-five soldiers make Gen. Hancock's garden, dig in his dooryard, trim his grapevines, and wait upon him is a steam yacht, with steam always up, the meeting. ready to take the General over to Delmonico's to dinner or down to Coney on Sunday, was generously and most Island for a sea-bath or a flirtation with | beautfully decorated with an innumerathe ladies. The ordinary Illinois farmer, with his face browned and hands lie," and the choir rendered several apcalloused with honest toil, would never be allowed to enter the presence of the commanding General. The first thought as you look at the General is that he must be Barnum's fat boy grown old. His face is gross and sensual. His checks puff out like the fat boy's, and then his whole head grows smaller and smaller till your eye rests on his forehead, which is low and narrow. The General is a great eater and a liberal drinker. He takes wine at every meal and whisky whenever he feels like it. High living and liberal drinking have given him a flabby, sensual double chin, which hangs down and rests over his smashed down shirt-collar. The General is 59 years old. He wears a white military mustache, and weighs about 250. He is not a good talker, and never succeeded in making the simplest semi-public speech. He is lazy and phlegmatic, and does nothing but eat, drink, and enjoy himself senis to be 1872 repeated. Hancock will sually. He never reads books. If he were not a major-general he would be a country landlerd, who sits around and lets his wife do the cooking while his son attends to the bar. If elected president he will do nothing himself. He will simply be a lump of dough in Languedoc and other superior Laces, at the hands of the rebel brigadiers of the | 5c less yer yard than they are marked,

The North once in the trap, Hancock will be used to turn out Northern office holders and to stock the country with southern brigadiers. If he is elected the solid south will do it, and they must and Monday, 10 and 12th instants, were have their reward. That reward will agreed upon as the two days (required by be to call back the officials who have 6th Sec of act approved April 20th, 1880) gone from Illinois and Indiana and fill for the assembling of the enumerators at consuls from smong the confederates. If Hancock is elected, $30,000,000 now paid annually to Union men in the North will be paid to the disunionists dress the Garfield Club at the Taberna- of the South. The Northern man who vôtes for Hancock will vote against his own country, his own people, and vote for the enemies of the republic in the solid south. The man who votes for Hancock will vote to have $30,000,000 taken away from the North and distributed among the hungry Secessionists of the South. Mrs. Hancock is a pleasant ordinary woman. She has no ambition. She the White House she would not, to use home" to the many, simply because it and Tonic Invigorator." would be the easiest way for her to do. Gen. Maneack's sons, John and Russell, have given him a good deal of trouble. have frequently caused their father and mother much anxiety. For example, Russell, now 24 years of age, got into a flirtation with a Miss Guynn, of Louisville, a few years ago. He was dissipated and fast, and he was not considered an cligible husband. Finally he married Miss Goynn claudestinely, and kept the marriage a secret for six months. Miss Guynn was finally obliged to tell her father and mother. The whole affair made a great scandal in Louisville, and so chagringed his father and mother that they refused to do anything for the boy. Finally, his father in law, Mr. Guyno, who always been in sympathy with the rebels of the south. He joined the Mississippi bulldozers, and at the last election has as much in favor of chatructing the freedman vote as the rankest rebal. On this point the views of the father and still his son will stand by and see those republicans disfranchised, and the General will say Amen !

Dissatisfaction with Hancock.

Frightful Murder in Chicago

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—I met a prominent Democrat to-day who was not pleased with the nomination of General Hancock as the candidate of his party. He is a man who has held high positions, and who knows the inside working of the Democratic machine. know on which day to let themselves He does not consider General Hancock's hoose. The circus on Saturday brought a nomination a strong one, and predicts that before sixty days the Democratic leaders will regret the action of the Cincinnati Convention. "Hancock is not," said the Democrat, chair. He is without any civil experience, and has no opinions of his own or the great questions which go to make up a political party. He is a success ful military leader, and this is all that can be said in his favor. The documents which appeared when he was military commander in Louisiana, during the days of reconstruction, as having been written by him, were prepared by another hand. This much I know. These political papers were not written by Judge Black, as alleged by Republi stalks up and down in front of his pri- number of guns were stacked together in can newspapers, but were written by Captain W. G. Mitchell, who figures in a report to the War Department as having been illegally appointed on General Hancock's staff, and as having drawn $9,051.05 to which he was not entitled. Mitchell is a man of ability and has been useful in supplying brains to Hancock, and enabling the latter to get credit for political papers which he never wrote, and which he is incapable has been flourishing in borrowed plumage and playing 'statesman' at the pub-lic expense. Quincy unknown man was found in the extreme northern portion of the city, near the artesian well, lying with his face in the mud, with a cut in the back of his head and his throat cut from ear to ear. The body was stark naked, but the elethes of a laboring man were found near. The police at first believed a laborer had committed suicide, but subsequent investigation revealed the fact that the man had been murdered and taken to the spot, his clothes removed and others placed in the vicinity to conceal his identity. KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 3.-A national salute was fired and bells rung in honor of Gen. Grant at 5 o'clock this morning. The grand procession also in his honor started at 1:30 this afternoon. Military companies from a number of places in Kansas took part in the parade, and a splendid display of the various arts, industries, and manufactures of the city was made. The procession was over a mile long, and was reviewed by Gen. Grant. The General will leave here for Fort Leavenworth this evening

Who Cursed Hancock in 1865? From the New York Commercial Advertises.

The ex-rebel silent sympathizing press of the North is now asking who it was that insulted Hancock at the time of the Suratt trial. We answer them. It was their press. At that time it was principle that led them now it is interest. Not a Republican a man fit to be put in the Presidential paper ever condemned the gallant General for his behaviour at that time, and we want every one to know who it really was. It was the World. It was the Express. It was the Daily News, and all that little coterie of Southern sympathizers who swore so in Flanders whenever a victory for the North was announced; sympathizers, some of whom were given a place in forts to refleet on the madness of openly opposing law and order in the time of the nation' peril.

Two Connecticut worthies of the Democratic faith, full of beer and maltous spirits, composed a dispatch to Hancock the day after the Cincinnati Convention, promising him the State by 6,000 majority. The dispatch was signed by C. W. Scott, who now says that he and three or four others wrote it for fun. John Cunningham, in whose saloon they were, says : "Some fellers wanted to tell Hancock we'd give him of writing. Let me say that Hancock 12,000, but Scott said we were doing such a solemn thing like pledgin' the State, we'd better halve it. MILAN's bread is always fresh and pure

THE afternoon and evening performanoos given by Van Amburgh & Co.'s wagon show, in this city, on Saturday last, attracted a very large number of people from country neighborhoods, the young hay-makers, binders and farmers coming to Decatur with their pockets well-stuffed with dollars, beat on having a grand good time at any cost. It was one of the 4th days, yes know, and the additional attraction of a circus made them think they owned the town, and that's why they cut such a big shine and bothered the police so much. But the circus—the tent was 1825. About the year 1829 or 1830 he set crowded full at both exhibitions, each giving general satisfaction, the ring performances being particularly good. But it was the most penurious and grasping the first man to start a horse or band mill set of showmen that ever struck Decatur, the management resorting to every possible means of bleeding their patrons, and to, the farmers bringing their corn and they did it with such a matter-of-course wheat from Monticello and farther north manner that the innocent victim could only passively respond to the cheeky call and other remote points, to be ground. for extra charges and submit to the inevitable-orgo away boiling with rage and us, the farmers used to visit the Davis disgust. The show left Decatur well Mill in such large numbers that they had supplied with funds, and will give two to wait their turns, all going into camp

PERSONAL POINTS. Mrs L. H. Elder has returned from her protracted visit in the east. Al Ormsby is a government letter carrier in the city of Chicago. Mrs. Dillehunt and her son Edward departed on Saturday afternoon for Indianapolis to visit her son, B. W. Dillehunt. George Dodson and Walter Baker spent the 4th in St. Louis, returning home at 10.40 last night. Dr. Goodwin reports an estimated crowd of two thousand at the temperance celebration at Lincoln on Saturday and a good time generally.

Charles Hubbell who is interested in a large boot and shoe house at St. Louis, spent two days of the 4th in Decatur, as the guest of W. B. Harry and family. Helieft for home safternoon.

Thomas McEvoy, foreman of the A. O. H. Emerald office at Chicago, is in the city on a short visit. He has been at Chicago for the past six months, and will return to his duties in a tew days. Miss Jennie Rogers, daughter lof our fellow-townsman, Jason' Rogers, Esq. who graduated at St Mary's Seminary located near Terre Haute, Ind , on June 30th, has returned home. Her sister, Miss May, and friend, Miss Sophic Rothbert, of Evansville, are also in the city, the latter as the guest of the Misses Rogers. Mr. and Mrs. Geo S Knight, who played "Otto" at the opera house two years ago, are now in Glasgow, Scotland We have received a marked copy of a Glasgow paper giving them an excellent send-off. They are booked for this city for March 15, 1881, at the opera house J D. Wheeler, M. D. physician and surgeon, has located in Decutur, and has opened an office at No. 19 Water street. He has purchased the residence property at No. 84 West Main street, lately owned by Charles L. Griswold, and is now living there with his family, which consists of a wife and son We welcome the Doctor to our city. See card in another column. Phineas T Barnum will celebrate his 70th birthday, on the 5th of July. He began work at 13 as a clerk in a country store, at 18 he opened an oyster saloon and engaged in selling lottery tickets under an assumed name. Then he pub-

THE short time which has clapsed unce the Cincinnati nominations has developed in Pennsylvania a slight ob struction in the way of a soldier stam pede for Gen Hancock. Another dis tinguished Pennsylvania soldier was concerned in the hanging of Mrs Surratt, and when he ran for governor a few years since the democrats dubbed him "Hangman Hartranft." Throughout the campaign he was designated by that title, and the shame of being a woman's exclusioner was urged as a fitting thing for the voters of Pennsylvania to con demn If Gen Hancock were a repub lican there would be no difficulty in reviving the same issue, but being a dem cerat, there is no danger of his being called "Hangman Hancock." But as Hartrauft was his subordinate, and he was the subordinate of some one else, their agency in the matter was precise ly the same, and the soldiers want to know why they should be rabidly ad jured to vote against one and affection ately requested to vote for the other It is a very pretty dilemma for the Pennsylvania democrats to wrestle with, and the vigor with which their anti Hartranft literature is rising up against them gives the campaign anything but a satisfactory outlook. Looked at from this distance a reconciliation of the democratic estimates of the two distinguished executioners of Mrs. Surratt appears impossible.— Globe Democrat

THE ridiculous charge against Gen Hancock, that he spent some seven mill ions of United States money, and used several thousand troops in the capture of two Indians, recoils with severity on the heads of those preferring it, when it is made known that the General also ecured two papooses and a one-eared mule, which made it a "superb" bargain The mud throwers will please pas e this
